

S, B, Female AGE 40

06/07/01 Breast Cancer Determined by Biopsy

Patient presented with tender lump in right breast. She has some general fatigue and depression. She seems in generally good health, but is terrified of the cancer.

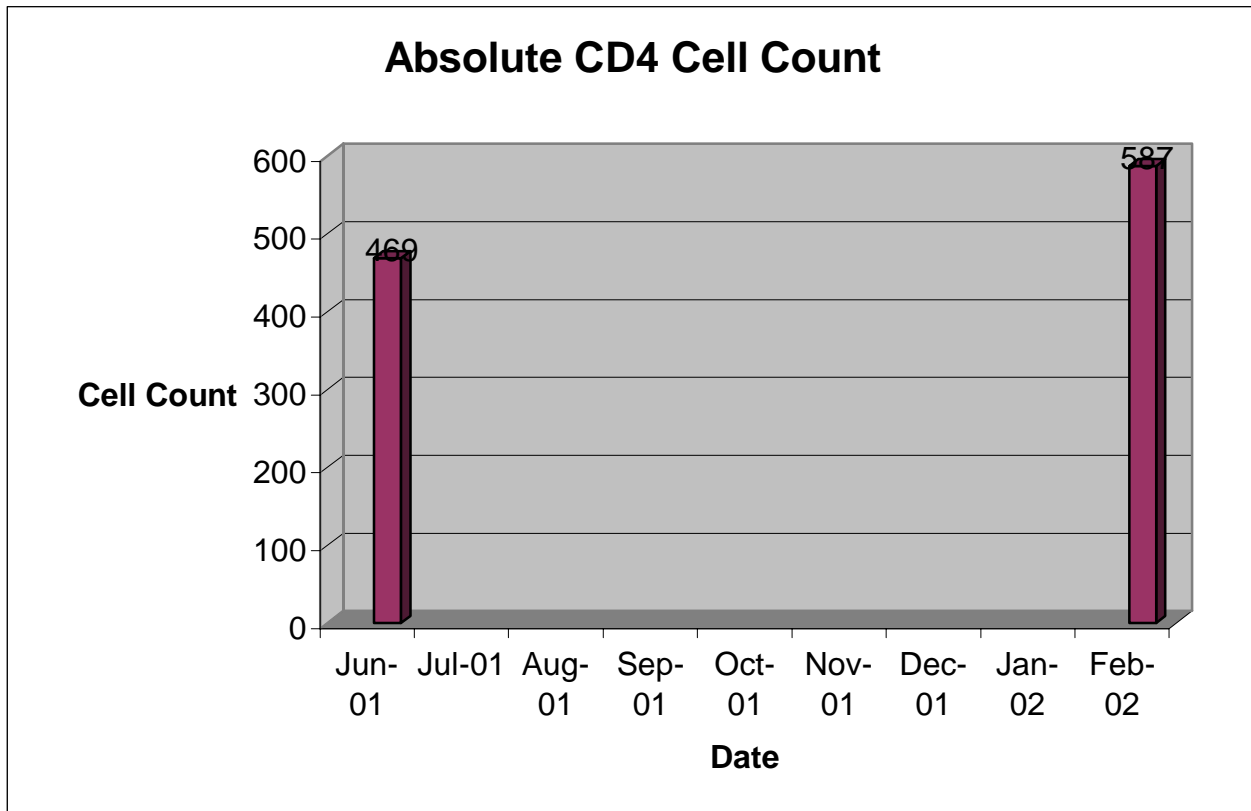

06/25/01 Started Broth

07/01/01 Right breast mastectomy

Patient is taking LifeOne Formula and says she feels very well. Energy level is good and depression seems to have improved. She is still concerned about death.

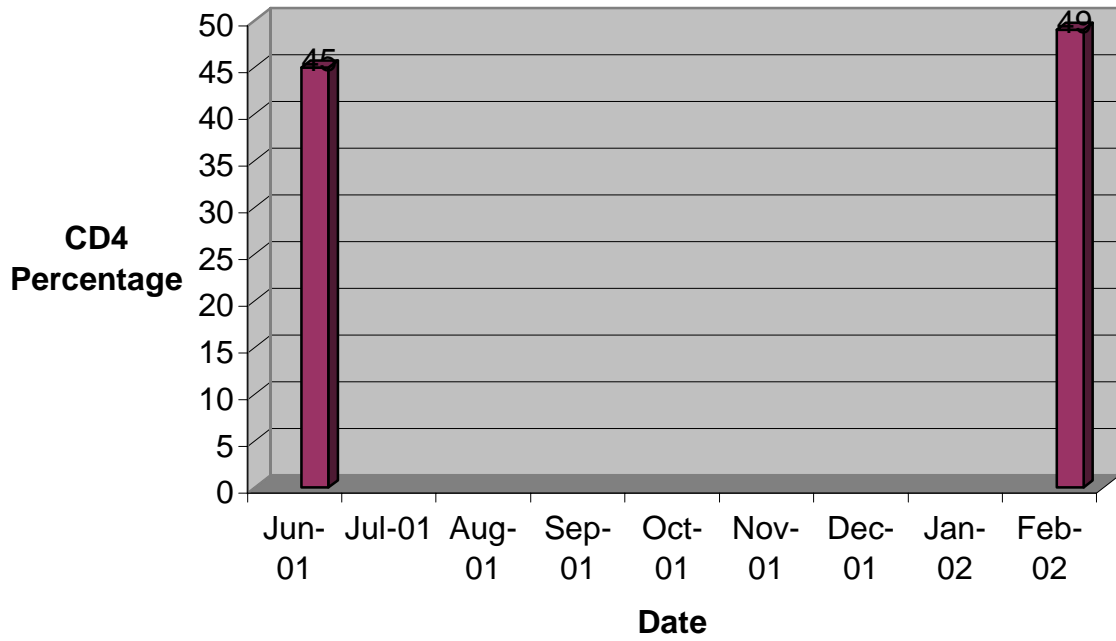

7/09/02 Normal CA 27/29 Cancer antigen test gives normal results.

The Following are results from her Lymphocyte Subset Panel. This panel gives a breakdown of the various lymphocytes responsible for fighting disease. As these counts increase the body's ability to fight diseases including cancer increase as well. It is imperative to have a healthy immune system to overcome cancer.

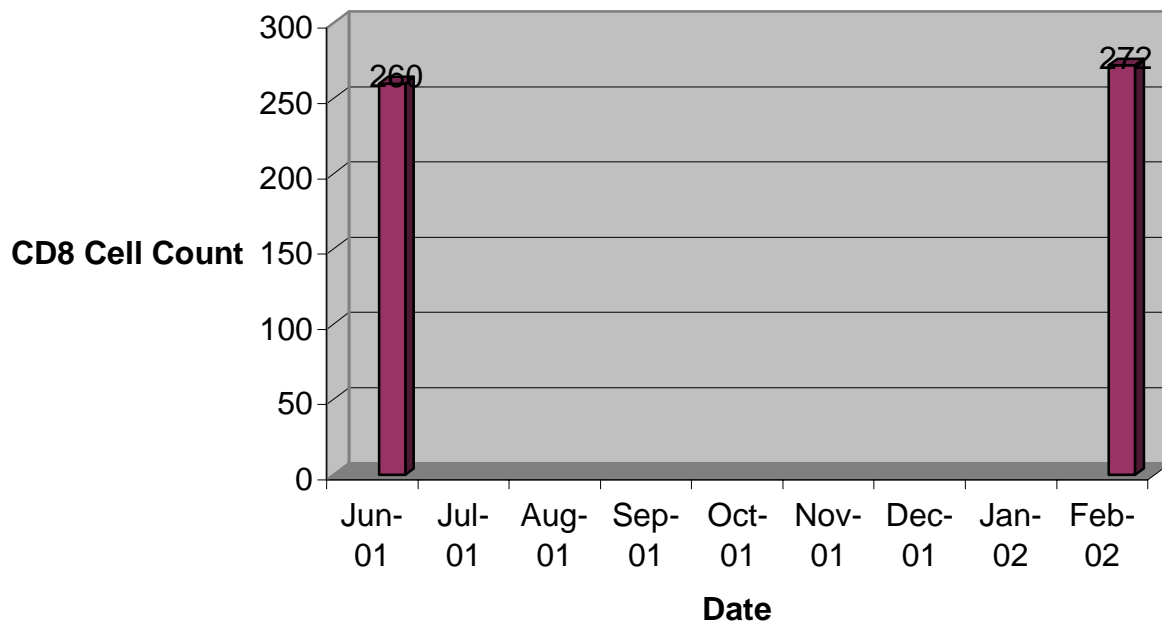

Normal Value 341-1175

CD4 percentage

Normal Value 29-59%

Absolute CD8 Cell Count

Normal Value 130-670